Johnson tonight held at bay a large posse of deputy sheriffs and citizens. Early in the afternoon they had killed Detectives W. J. Epling, Burwell, and seriously wounded Ed Mounds and Deputy Sheriff Lindsay Hatfield.

The bandits, who had killed Dr. Amick and his companions and robbed them of $15,000 they were taking to the coal mines at Glenn Alum, have made their way through some of the most rugged country in West Virginia. Scores of men followed through the greater part of the afternoon and were believed at least one of the bandits had been hit.
News of the fighting spread through out the surrounding country and the posse was reinforced by many men from mountain towns in that vicinity. The bandits were killed at Glenn Alum, where Prater and Bud Elswick, natives of Glenn Alum district.

Anderson Folks
On Camping Trip.
A party of Andersonians left last night for Shanley Shoals, in Hart county, Georgia, on a ten days camping trip. The party was composed of Jas. N. Pearman and family, V. H. Wilson and family and W. E. Rasor and family. The trip was made through the country in automobiles, and all going were positive that they would have the time of their lives.

Local Garage
Uses New Device.
The Piedmont Garage has installed a contrivance for cleaning carbon from the cylinders of autos, that apparently is what owners of cars have long hoped for. The new process is said to be dependable in every way, as the oxygen inserted into the cylinders is set on fire and burns every vestige of the carbon out, without having to take the motor all to pieces as has been the way of removing carbon in the past. In addition to being done in a hurry, the cost is not near as much as heretofore, it only costs about 75 cents per cylinder with the new process, whereas the cost for cleaning them out up to the present time has been approximately $4 per cylinder.

Miss Hirschmann
Has Gone to Europe.
Miss Theo Hirschmann, niece of Mrs. Josie Seligman, who recently accompanied Mrs. Seligman on her trip to New York, has engaged passage to Europe. She hopes to be able to reach Berlin, Germany, and visit relatives, also, have her eyes treated by Berlin specialists before returning here, where Miss Hirschmann intends entering Anderson College.

Former Pastor
Will Fill Pulpit.
Rev. S. J. Carledge, of Athens, Ga., former pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach here today at both morning and evening services. Rev. Carledge has a number of friends who will be glad of this opportunity to hear him again. Everybody invited to attend.

Anderson Man
Back Home Again.
T. H. Henderson, former superintendent of the Riverside and Toxaway Mills, of this city, but now superintendent of a large mill in Norfolk, Va., is back in the Electric City for a visit of several weeks with friends. Mr. Henderson has been away for two years, and was agreeably surprised at the rapid growth of this city in his absence.

Slight Difficulty
At Piercetown Meeting.
The serenity of the meeting at Piercetown was rudely broken by a Missouri Mule, Friday afternoon. Alvin Rogers, a prosperous farmer of the immediate section, walked a little too close to the heels of a mule, whose name was evidently Maud, and as a consequence Mr. Rogers is today a sadder but wiser man. The injury was not serious, but very painful, as Mr. Rogers was unconscious for a short while. To enforce the rule of safety first, it might be advisable for all parties owing mules to post a notice near them in all public places reading: "Beware of the mule."

Interesting Visitor
In City Yesterday.
Among the interesting visitors to Anderson yesterday was Mr. Major C. Shirley, a member of the pay corps of the United States navy. He is on his annual vacation, which he is spending at his old home near Shirley's store with his parents. Mr. Shirley has been located for the past year at New York, and talks interestingly of the life, and of the military operations both at home and abroad. While not permitted to express his views on any phase of the complications, Mr. Shirley possesses a vast fund of information which he can discuss in a general way.

Former Citadel
Man in Town.
I. A. Gilles, formerly of Anderson, is spending several days in the city with his relatives. Mr. Gilles was a member of the class of '03 at the Citadel. Since graduating Mr. Gilles has spent considerable time in the West and at Panama, being engaged for a considerable period of time as surveyor. His many Anderson friends will be glad to learn that Mr. Gilles is coming back to South Carolina, if not to Anderson, and that he will be at Spartanburg.

ANDERSON MAY HAVE EXHIBIT

Chamber of Commerce Will Endeavor to Have Manufacturers Represented

Anderson may have a manufacturers' exhibit this fall in Boston, on the occasion of the "Back to the Farm" Exposition in that city. The matter will be taken up at the next meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce. The following communication in the movement has been received here:

August 11, 1914.
The Chamber of Commerce, Anderson, S. C.

Gentlemen:
New England is offering the most attractive proposition to the Southern States they have ever received, to participate in a great exposition to be held in Boston, October 5th to 31st, of this year.

We feel that though the time is short, many of our commercial organizations should make a special effort to take advantage of this most unique invitation.
Mr. Albert R. Rogers, of Boston, the Municipal Civic Expert, says: "A great back-to-the-farm movement is on foot in New England. Our young men are going back to the farm in large numbers. They do not go South because they do not know that the South raises anything but cotton. If the South will only show New England her wonderful agricultural possibilities and industrial opportunities, many will come and much capital will be invested there."

The enclosed circular tells the interesting details of the exposition as relating to the South, and the "Back-to-the-Farm" department.
The expense of exhibiting at the exposition is small, as the exposition lasts one month and they expect to have an attendance close to 1,000,000 people. The cost of exhibiting in the "Back-to-the-Farm" Department, to the Southern States, is 75 cents per square foot, which covers the cost of the space and booth for the entire month.

Further information regarding the exposition or reservations for space should be addressed to the Boston exposition, "Back-to-the-Farm" Department, 12 South Market street, Boston, Mass.

The presenting of the South, through its exhibits, to rich New England, is an unusual opportunity and one that should be accepted if possible.

Yours very truly,
CLARENCE J. OWENS,
Managing Director.

LOOKS TRICKY
Supposed sale of German Cruisers to Turkey Possibly Did Not Materialize.

London, August 15.—The Mitylene correspondent of the Reuter Telegraph company, who has just returned to his post after spending five days in the Dardanelles, aboard the Italian steamer Romania, which the Turks are detaining in hopes of inducing her officers to surrender her cargo of flour sends the following dispatch:

"I transferred to a small American vessel which left yesterday and arrived here this (Friday) morning. The German cruisers Goeben and Breslau after escaping the British fleet, entered the Dardanelles Monday night. The German officers from the cruisers boarded several ships the next morning and gave peremptory orders that they should not move. The Germans smashed part of the wireless installation on the French liner Saghalien, which had aboard 600 reservists. Turkish officers visited the cruiser. I saw them fraternize with the Germans."

"The Goeben proceeded eastward Tuesday. The rumor was circulated that she had been purchased by Turkey but she was seen in the sea of Namora Thursday flying the German flag. The Breslau, also flying the German flag, was in the Dardanelles Thursday.
According to reliable information the ports apologized to the powers for the arbitrary proceedings but no explanation was forthcoming as to why the cruisers were flying the German flag."

AN EARLY RAID GETS RESULTS

Officers Mob Eight Denizens of Red Hill in Early Morning Game

A lively scene was enacted this morning in the section of the city known as Red Hill at the early hour of 2 o'clock. Officers J. W. Simmons, J. W. Brown, W. L. Bolt, C. N. Sanders and J. W. Whitten were the heroes in the scrimmage which occurred over just an innocent little game known as "craps." Ten denizens of the darktown section were having a most enjoyable time rolling the ivory bones when the above-named officers suddenly appeared on the scene. In the mix up two of them succeeded in making a getaway, but eight of them are in handcuffs today. As a result of the escapade, bonds being unavailable on short notice.

The names of the offenders could not be learned before going to press, but will no doubt appear on the docket at the mayor's court in the morning, when the case will be called up.
